THE ANCIENT PROPHECY

When false-Narnia has disappeared, a new enemy of Narnia has risen. It was Satira, a sister of Judice. No One expected that events would take such a turn. Christian, the son of Lucy, who was a new king of Narnia, found out from the old dwarf about the ancient prophecy that has been forgotten:

"When Narnia will disappear from the universe, Satira, a sister of Judice, will arise together with her daughter, Elira; and their revenge will fall upon Narnia. However, only a flower from a red ruby can defeat Satira. Only a member of a royal family can pick this flower".

Christian was in shock after he heard this prophecy.

- "Where can I find this flower?" - Christian asked an old dwarf.
- "You can find it where green beams of light fall on the earth. This place is the island of Pirus. You can get there only if you have pure heart. Do not forget, however, that those beams fall only once a year".

- "I do not know, though, when it will happen next time".

The dwarf started to search in his dower chest, and, all of a sudden, he screamed:

- "I found it! I found it!"

- "Shhh... dwarf - what have you found there?"

- "This is a magic calendar that will show when it will happen next time! You have to hurry up - it will happen it 13 days! If you will not make it on time, then Narnia will perish in the fire of revenge".

Christian started to pack for his long trip. Eares, Christian's best friend, decided to go with him. They went on their journey flying on griffins. With all the stops, it took Christian and Eares 10 days to arrive to their destination.

They had arrived to the desert island of Pirus, isolated from the whole world. At this time, however, Satira with her daughter Elira came to Narnia on wicked harpies. Satira was throwing fire balls on to the residents of Narnia. Gladly, daughter of the witch was not wicked as her mother. The daughter was kind and never harmed Narnia. Satira hated her daughter because of it. Elira also had power - power of water and air. While the mother was attacking Narnia, her daughter escaped, but not far away. The old dwarf found her. He realized right away the the girl is kind and is not like her mother. An old dwarf helped Elira to gather the army.

Christian and Eares were walking on the island searching for the flower, even though only Christian was the only one who could see the flower. All of a sudden Christian saw a green light. He ran and saw a very beautiful flower. The king picked it up and ran towards griffins. Elira, meanwhile, has gathered the army and was developing the fight strategy.

Three days later Christian with his friend were already in Narnia, but they were a little late. The battle was already happening. Christian ran into the middle of the battlefield and shouted: "In the name of Aslan, I commend you, the flower, to defeat the witch"! After those words a flower turned into an amazing sword. Christian took it and has cut the head of the terrible Satira. Christian married Elira and she became a new queen of Narnia.
